

The main mission of the network

Strengthening the capabilities of nurses and parallelizing the goals of nursing research with the cooperation of colleges and nursing research centers in congruence with the needs of the health system and increasing the quality of scientific products in the supported fields in order to expand the boundaries of nursing knowledge, promote the health and quality of life for people in the community and respond to the needs of stakeholders and service recipients under the slogan of health for all.